CHE 670 Sustainability Seminar for Summer 2013

The audience will include undergraduate students in Research Experiences for Undergraduates programs, students enrolled for credit, and others. There will be 20 youth from Europe here in July.

The seminars will be in Rathbone 1052 at 8:30 a.m. on Fridays. We will video tape the seminars for use in our distance education program.

May 31 - John Harrington - Climate Change

June 7 - Lee Skabelund - Storm Water Management and Green Infrastructure

June 14 - Charles Rice - Sequestration of Carbon in Soils

June 21 - Ruth Miller - Solar Energy

June 28 - John Floros - Feeding the World through Science and Technology: A Look into our Future Food System

July 5 - Dan Devlin - Water in Kansas

July 12 - Ben Champion - Sustainability at K-State

July 19 - Blase Leven and Jim Steichen - Land, Brownfields, and Sustainable Agriculture

July 26 - Sustainable Development Priorities

August 2 - Oral Presentations by Students Enrolled for Credit